

Cookie and Tracking Tool Policy

This information supplements NDrip Ltd. Privacy Policy.

NDrip Ltd. and its affiliated entities (collectively, “NDrip”, “us” or “we”) implement a number of industry standard information-gathering tools, such as cookies, to collect information about your use and interaction with our Website (“Information”).

Cookies

We use cookies on our Website for a variety of useful purposes, such as, to analyze web traffic, adapt services, content, and advertisements, to measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns, and to promote the confidence in and security of our Website. We also use cookies to distinguish one user from another and, in conjunction with the log files from our web server, to calculate the total number of visitors to our Website. This Information data helps us to obtain the feedback required for constantly improving our Website and to better serve all users. For more additional general information about cookies, you might want to visit a third party site at <http://www.aboutcookies.org>.

NDrip uses both session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies exist only for the duration of a single visit to a website. They disappear from your computer or device when you close your browser or turn off your computer. Persistent cookies stay on your computer or device after you close your browser or turn off your computer or device. Because cookies are stored on your own computer or device, you are always free to set your browser to decline them and you can delete them from your device. However, if you do so, you may find that some web pages do not work smoothly or that your ability to use certain features or functions of our Websites may be limited.

The table below describes the different types of cookies used by NDrip on its website and your options for managing your devices’ cookie settings:

1. PHPSESSID
 - a. Cookies named PHPSESSID only contain a reference to a session (a visit to our site) stored on the web server. No information is stored in the user's browser and this cookie can only be used by the web site in the current session.
2. GAT & _GA
 - a. Both these cookies are from Google Analytics which provides website traffic information. More information about what information they track can be found here.

Log Files, IP Addresses, URLs and Other Data

Like most websites, we gather Information automatically to analyze cumulative trends and to administer our websites. This information may include your IP address (or the proxy server you use to access the web), device and application identification numbers, your location, your browser type, your internet service provider and/or mobile carrier, the pages and files you viewed, your searches, your operating system and system configuration information, and date/time stamps associated with your usage. Due to internet communications standards, when you visit or use our websites, we automatically receive the URL of the website you came from and the website you go to when you leave our website. This information is used to analyze overall trends, to help us improve our websites, and to track and aggregate non-personal information.
